

Woking Palace and its Park

SPRING TALK 2015

This is the next in an exciting series of talks to celebrate the Tudor period and archaeology as part of the Woking Palace and its Park Project, a community-led outreach programme funded by the Heritage Lottery Fund

Saturday 28th March 2015

"From Manor to Palace - excavating the moated site at Woking"
Rob Poulton, Surrey County Archaeological Unit

2pm to 3pm at Surrey History Centre, Woking, GU21 6ND

Community excavations have been taking place annually at Woking Palace since 2009. The talk will focus on the exciting new information to emerge in 2014. This includes the discovery of the palace well, an industrial area, new medieval buildings, and the exploration of the huge Tudor kitchen.

Tickets are free- but booking is essential.
